

Fred Alfred Garrard

Age 36

Birth Place: Kensington, London
Birth Date: 1880
Death Date: 21st October 1916
Death Location: France
Rank: Private
Regiment: 8th Bn. Border Regiment
Service No: 21288
Type of Casualty: K. I. A.
Enlisted: 27th May 1915
Parents: Elijah and Emily Garrard, of Kensington, London.
Husband of Isabella Peake
formerly Garrard, of Market Place, New Buckenham.

Cemetery: LONDON CEMETERY AND EXTENSION, LONGUEVAL 3. D.31
Comments: Fred lived on the Common with his partner Isabella (called Mrs. Garrard) and their three children, Wilfred, Florence and Dorothy. The day before he enlisted Fred did the right thing by Isabella and the children by getting married at Wayland Register Office. His occupation until enlistment was General Labourer, although he had served eighteen months with 4th Norfolk Regiment. He received GSW (Gun Shot Wounds) to face, head and arm on 20th July 1916, recovered, and was listed as missing on 25th November 1916. On 2nd August 1917 he was officially recognised as having died on or since 21st October 1916. His body (skull & two hips) was found with his Disc. At Map Reference. 57d. R.15.c.85.60 and reburied after the war.

Medals: Fred was awarded the 1914/15 Star,
British War Medal and Victory Medal

